RESTAURANG ÄNG

ÄNG è un ristorante con una stella Michelin situato nei campi di Ästad Vingård, in Svezia.
La collezione effetto pietra Le Reverse è stata scelta da Norm Architect per vestire gran parte della struttura, abbinata sapientemente ad un rovere naturale locale e ad elementi di design firmati Karimoku e Keiji Ashizawa.

ÄNG is a Michelin star restaurant that stands in rural surroundings at Ästad Vingård, in Sweden.
Norm Architects chose the Le Reverse stone-look collection to cover a large part of the building, cleverly combined with a local natural oak wood and design features styled by Karimoku and Keiji Ashizawa.
